PRIVACY

Our Privacy Policy describes how we collect, disclose, store and use personal information as well as how to access it, correct it or make a complaint. When we say personal information we may also mean sensitive information such as health information, criminal history or professional memberships that's relevant to us issuing, administering or managing products or providing services and the terms on which we will do these things. We use personal information to issue, administer and manage products and provide services. You can view our Privacy Policy at www.qbe.com.au/privacy, or to obtain a copy by phoning us on 133 723 or requesting it from our authorised representatives or service providers. We may share your information with other QBE Group companies, our authorised representatives and service providers, each of which may be based outside of Australia. By giving us personal information you consent to us collecting, disclosing, storing and using it in accordance with our Privacy Policy. If you give us someone else's personal information you confirm you've obtained their consent to do so. If you don't provide all of the personal information we've requested we may be unable to issue, administer or manage products or provide services.

TAX FILE NUMBER DECLARATION

If you have been informed by us that your claim has been accepted for weekly benefits and we have received your Tax File Number Declaration, we will provide payment net of any withholding PAYG tax which will be payable to the ATO. If you do not return the completed tax file number declaration to us within 28 days of us accepting your claim, we will be required to withhold tax at the top marginal tax rate on any payments we make to you. Any tax withheld by QBE will reduce your tax liability at the end of the financial year.
